FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The United Irish of Dayton Celtic Festival After Festival Party will be held Saturday, July 30, at Flanagan's Pub, 101 E Stewart Street near UD. Doors open at 11 p.m. and music begins at 11:45 p.m.

Blue Stack with Brendan Loughrey from Chicago will perform. This County Donegal man has witnessed first-hand the hardships and struggles of life along the North-South Irish border divide. A strong family tradition of music, song and storytelling has provided Brendan with the very solid conviction and foundation that has evolved into his passionate and prolific songwriting and performances.

The bands' name is from The Bluestack Mountains in Brendan's home county of Donegal in the rugged North-West of Ireland. A beautifully diverse region featuring the stunning coastal Atlantic Drive, historic Bloody Foreland and home to some of the greatest character's you are ever likely to encounter.

Tickets may be purchased during the United Irish of Dayton Celtic Festival at the headliner's merchandise booth located at the Guinness stage in the Pavilion at RiverScape MetroPark. Tickets are limited and will be sold on a first come basis.

The After Festival Party is part of the 2011 United Irish of Dayton Celtic Festival, presented by United Irish of Dayton and Flanagan's Pub.
